Dear Mr. Rogers:

Thank you for your letter of February 6 concerning Charles Walker, Jr.

We will maintain this man's name on our confidential file so that he cannot be registered in Scouting. We are as concerned as you are that people who have unsatisfactory records not be permitted to be leaders of youth. At this time, however, we do get caught in legal entanglements and without proper information to back up our files, we sometimes run into trouble. This is the only reason we ask for more information.

If at any time in the future, there is an opportunity to get more information concerning this individual, we shall certainly welcome anything you can supply for our files.

Sincerely,

Re: Charles Walker, Jr.
PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Paul:

In answer to your letter of January 31, there is no further substantiating information available regarding Mr. Walker. Nothing has appeared in the newspapers.

All I can offer is a statement made over the telephone by a Glendale Police Captain, who verified that this man should certainly be restricted from any contact with boys. I can further verify that this man's wife is getting a divorce because of his involvement with [REDACTED]

The only other possibility would be a written statement from Mrs. Walker, but I hesitate to put her in that embarrassing position.

It would certainly be a shame if we can't follow the confidential advice of a Police Department.

Sincerely,

T. A. Rogers
Council Executive

Dear Ted:

We are sorry we are no longer permitted, by law, to furnish criminal record information to organizations such as yours.

X On January 1, 1975, Assembly Bill 1687 was enacted into law and makes it a crime for an officer to furnish any such information to unauthorized persons. The individual receiving such information would have additionally violated the law.

Please find attached a copy of that bill. I hope this will suffice insofar as your National Organization is concerned.

Very truly yours,

Duane R. Baker
